Kellisue was born on December 16, 1972 to Joyce and James Kilcullen. They lived in a one family home in on Old Trail Road in the Town of Johnstown NY. Kellisue grew up with her brother John who was two years younger than her she has two other brothers that were raised in other homes due to social service intervention Tom Kilcullen and Christopher Clouston. She also has two sisters she did not meet until her mother passed away.

Kellisue graduated from Fonda High School in 1992, she held a job at Burger King where she met her husband Jayson and became a couple in 1997. On April 24, 1999 they were united in marriage. They have a little girl together who is 9 years of age.

Kellisue was very active in the Sir William Johnson Fire Department in Johnstown, New York. She was also active in the PTA and other various activities at her daughter's school. Kellisue is known to be a hard worker and went above and beyond what was asked of her. She was outspoken and not afraid to speak her mind.

Sadly the night of September 30, 2008 Kellisue went missing. Her car was found burning on W. Montgomery St. in the City of Johnstown NY No one has heard from her or seen her.

A Prayer For The Missing

O, Blessed Mother and St Joseph, you searched when your Son Jesus disappeared when he was twelve.

You would not give up until he was found.

You know the pain of having someone missing, and the joy of finding them, as you found your son.

Help those who are searching now, to find the answers to their questions, and an end to their searching.

Inspire people to be vigilant, so that their eyes and ears may see and hear news that will bring hope.

Comfort those who feel lonely and sad because the one they love has vanished.

Be with them in the storm and guide them in their efforts. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
